MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Conversion to the New Defense Civilian Intelligence Personnel System (DCIPS)

1. References:

   d. Memorandum, Deputy Chief of Staff, G-2, dated July 17, 2009, subject: Delegation of Authority for the Defense Civilian Intelligence Personnel System (DCIPS) and Issuance of Army Interim DCIPS Policy.

2. By references a and b, the Department of Defense (DoD) established DCIPS as the civilian personnel system for defense intelligence positions, employees, and organizations with duties and functions considered to have an intelligence function. The Army G-2, by reference c, was delegated authority to lead the implementation of DCIPS in Army and on July 19, 2009, Army activities implemented the new DCIPS personnel system, to include pay bands and performance management for intelligence positions and employees appointed under 10 U.S.C. §1601 (pay plan GG).

3. We recognize that change is difficult, especially one this significant to our workforce, but we believe this change is in the best interest of the Intelligence Community, the Army, and our employees. A key element of the success of this system will be the commitment of our senior leaders at all levels. We, therefore, ask for your commitment and leadership in being a champion for this new system.

4. We have partnered within the Headquarters, G-1 and G-2 staffs, and with the Civilian Human Resources Agency and the Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Army (Manpower and Reserve Affairs), in the development of DCIPS policy and its implementation. These efforts, along with the active engagement of Command G-1 staffs and the G-2 functional community, will help ensure the success of this new system. These partnerships are particularly important as we continue with communication, training, and implementation efforts throughout the Army enterprise. All DCIPS employees and all supervisors (military and civilian) of DCIPS employees need to become knowledgeable of the Army Interim DCIPS policies and flexibilities issued under reference d. I encourage your involvement in this transition by being champions within your respective organizations on two fronts: 1) by increasing Army’s return on investment by utilizing those Army employees trained to deliver DCIPS training within your respective organizations and to assist other organizations with their training efforts, where needed; and 2) engaging in every opportunity to learn and communicate your support of this new system. I ask that you familiarize yourself with the Army DCIPS supplemental guidance and adhere to the roles and responsibilities described in those policies.

5. New personnel systems are dynamic. All DCIPS employees and their supervisors (military and civilian) must complete on-line DCIPS training at http://dcips.dtic.mil and attend mandatory DCIPS classroom training offered throughout the Army. Upon completion of training, employees must provide copies of their training certificates to their DCIPS Transition Manager. We strongly encourage all employees to regularly visit the Army’s DCIPS website at http://www.dami.army.pentagon.mil/site/dcips to remain up-to-date on the most current information.

6. Working together we can achieve the goals and expectations of the ODNI, USD(I), and Army in implementing all aspects of DCIPS. We look forward to working with you and your staffs in achieving yet another success for Army.

7. Points of contact for the Army’s DCIPS implementation is Ms. Yolanda Watson, (703) 695-2443, DSN: 225-2443, yolanda.watson@us.army.mil or Ms. Vieanna Huertas, (703) 695-1070, DSN: 225-1070, vieanna.huertas@us.army.mil.
